

Student Residence Auckland

Railway Campus

The Railway Campus is located just a few minutes walk from downtown Auckland city. Formerly the Railway Station of the city, this building, with national heritage status, is a grand architectural statement in the heart of the city. As the residence is shared with local university students, Kaplan Aspect students have the opportunity to meet New Zealanders as well as students from all over the world. There are 230 furnished self-contained apartments with single and twin bedrooms available to Kaplan Aspect students. Students can opt for a meal plan at the fully licensed café and bar, or choose the self catering option and use the large communal kitchens to prepare their own meals. There is an extensive range of communal facilities available to students including: a library, gymnasium, computer lab, Sky TV lounge, outdoor barbeque area, games room, well equipped kitchens and dining areas, laundry room, music practice rooms, giant chess board area, reading and study rooms and much more.
