

Student Residence Dean College

Residence

The Kaplan Aspect residence at Dean College has many dormitories located on a safe, suburban college campus in Franklin, just a 45-minute train ride from Boston. Dean College is located one block from the train station with easy access to shopping, beaches, mountains and numerous cultural and sporting events. This residence offers spacious single and double rooms with in-room study space. There are community meeting rooms, laundry and kitchen facilities a few steps away.

While mingling with other students who attend classes at Dean, Kaplan Aspect students can practise their English and learn about the local culture. There is secure controlled access to each room with staff members available to assist students with their housing needs. Every room offers modern furnishings and study facilities with wardrobe and storage space. Students may use the computer facilities on campus which have full internet access. The beautifully landscaped grounds offer an attractive and safe environment.
